Republic Day Celebration in Valladolid

The 73rd Republic Day of India was celebrated in the city of Valladolid on the evening of 26th January 2022, at the Indian Cultural Center Casa De La India. This was the first Indian National Day ceremony in Spain to be held outside the capital city of Madrid.

The ceremony was inaugurated with the lighting of the lamp jointly by the Ambassador, Shri Dinesh K. Patnaik, Mayor of Valladolid and the President of Casa De La India, Mr. Oscar Puente Santiago, and the Vice Chancellor of the University of Valladolid, Mr. Antonio Largo Cabrerizo. Ambassador welcomed the guests and highlighted the historic relationship between India and Spain. It was followed by the address of the Mayor in which he congratulated India on completing 72 years as a Republic. The event concluded with dance performances by Bharatanatyam and Odissi artists and interaction with the representatives of National, Regional and Local Government, Chamber of Commerce and Indian diaspora community.
