MINISTRY OF
PORTS, SHIPPING AND WATERWAYS

On behalf of the Government of India, I invite the World's Maritime Community to Mumbai for India Maritime Week 2025. Together we'll honour our seafaring heritage, unveil next-generation shipping technologies and set a shared course for a sustainable blue economy.
Come explore opportunities, forge partnerships and help steer India's rapidly rising maritime sector towards global leadership.

— Shri Sarbananda Sonowal
Hon'ble Minister of Ports, Shipping & Waterways

सत्यमेव जयते

India’s maritime future is being forged now across our ports, fleets and bold blue economy reforms.
As host of India Maritime Week 2025, the Ministry of Ports, Shipping and Waterways invites global partners to a summit where vision turns to action: Green Corridors, Autonomous Vessels, Cruise Terminals and thriving Coastal Communities.

— Shri Shantanu Thakur

Hon'ble Minister of State of Ports, Shipping & Waterways

100 NATIONS ONE OCEAN

At India Maritime Week 2025, over 100 nations converge to co-create solutions, strengthen ties, forge partnerships and ensure the ocean remains a catalyst for equitable and sustainable progress.

FROM LOTHAL TO LEADERSHIP INDIA'S MARITIME EVOLUTION

2400 BCE

Lothal Dockyard

The Indus-Valley port of Lothal perfects a tidal-lock basin, enabling Harappan merchants to sail the Gulf of Khambhat and trade beads, copper and cotton with Mesopotamia.

1000 CE

Chola Blue-Water Navy

Chola emperors build a formidable fleet, mastering monsoon winds to extend Indian influence across South-East Asia and control vital spice routes.

1700s

Maratha Naval Power

The Maratha Navy under Admiral Kanhoji Angre secured India's western seaboard, building fort-based shipyards and leading indigenous naval resistance to colonial fleets.

5 Apr 1919

S.S. Loyalty

India's first merchant steamship, owned by Scindia Navigation, departs Bombay for London—igniting the modern Indian merchant marine and now celebrated as National Maritime Day.

1963

The Major Port Trusts Act

The MPTA gave India's major ports autonomy to set tariffs and reinvest profits, unlocking finance for dredging, container terminals and mechanised handling. This self-governance doubled national port capacity within 20 years and guided operations until 2021.

2015

Sagarmala

Government unveiled a ₹8 lakh crore port-led development plan to modernise infrastructure, cut logistics cost, and boost coastal employment.

2024

Vadhavan Port

Vadhvan Port is poised to become one of the top 10 ports globally. The port will serve as a major shipping hub, featuring nine 1,000 meter long container terminals, multipurpose berths. The port will act as India's new gateway to international trade, with a total capacity of 298 million metric tonnes (MMT) per year.

2025

And the Journey Continues

India advances its green maritime agenda through the Harit Sagar Guidelines, Green Tug Transition Programme, Harit Nauka Scheme, and Green Corridors. Backed by Sagarmala, this includes clean fuels, electric vessels, and smart port tech like AI, IoT, and bathymetric systems to power a sustainable, tech-driven Blue Economy.

EVENT ARCHITECTURE

India Maritime Week 2025 brings together policy vision, commercial deal-making, technology showcases, and community engagement into one integrated platform—inviting delegates to explore multiple dynamic forums shaping the future of the blue economy.
